SPECIAL INVESTIGATIVE DIVISION

December 22, 1976

Attached teletype from Chicago advises of the apprehension of a La Cosa Nostra enforcer by Bureau Agents without incident at Chicago, Illinois, on 12/21/76.

Harry Peralt Aleman, a 37-year-old white male, was indicted by an Illinois Grand Jury on 12/13/76 in connection with the 1972 shotgun slaying of a union steward. He and his partner William Petrocelli are believed responsible for at least a dozen murders in the past several months. They reportedly may be responsible for the recent slaying of Rickie Manzie, at Las Vegas, Nevada, who was found in his residence shot in the head. Manzie is the husband of nationally known singer Barbara McNair.

SPECIAL INVESTIGATIVE DIVISION

Attached teletype from SAC, Chicago, advises of a new Unlawful Interstate Flight-Murder case.

Harry Peralt Aleman, a 37-year-old white male Chicago area La Cosa Nostra enforcer who was believed responsible for approximately one dozen murders in the recent past, was indicted by an Illinois Grand Jury on 12/13/76 in connection with the 1972 shotgun slaying of a union steward.

At the request of Chicago authorities, coupled with evidence to indicate that Aleman had fled the northern Illinois area, the fleeing felon was charged with unlawful interstate flight to avoid prosecution for the crime of murder.

Several offices are now involved in our intensive investigation to locate this extremely dangerous fugitive. This case will be closely followed at the Bureau.
